

Daedalus (DAY-de-lus) Cellars is a small, family-owned winery in Oregon's Willamette Valley.

Our 2006 Chardonnay is structured and rich with flavors of ripe white-skinned fruits and complex elements of citrus and minerality to build a rich mouth feel.

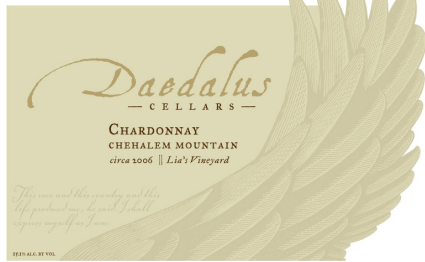

The wine pairs well with scallops, crab, chicken and pasta dishes.

Daedalus (DAY-de-lus) Cellars is a small, family-owned winery in Oregon's Willamette Valley.

Our 2006 Chardonnay is structured and rich with flavors of ripe white-skinned fruits and complex elements of citrus and minerality to build a rich mouth feel.

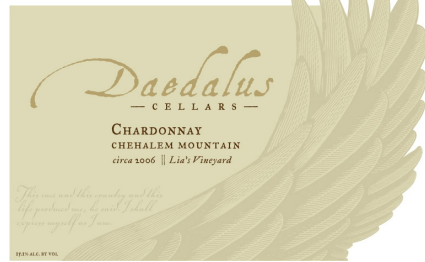

The wine pairs well with scallops, crab, chicken and pasta dishes.

Daedalus (DAY-de-lus) Cellars is a small, family-owned winery in Oregon's Willamette Valley.

Our 2006 Chardonnay is structured and rich with flavors of ripe white-skinned fruits and complex elements of citrus and minerality to build a rich mouth feel.

The wine pairs well with scallops, crab, chicken and pasta dishes.

Daedalus (DAY-de-lus) Cellars is a small, family-owned winery in Oregon's Willamette Valley.

Our 2006 Chardonnay is structured and rich with flavors of ripe white-skinned fruits and complex elements of citrus and minerality to build a rich mouth feel.

The wine pairs well with scallops, crab, chicken and pasta dishes.