

Daedalus (DAY-de-lus) Cellars is a small, family-owned winery in Oregon's Willamette Valley.

Our winemaker, Aron carefully selects the very best barrels of Pinot Noir in our cellar to make our 2006 Labyrinth. Complex fruit and elegant structure, plum, cherry and violet with light, aromatic wood notes. The wine drinks well upon release and will improve with cellaring for at least three to five years.

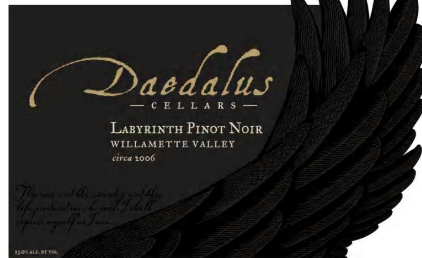

Daedalus (DAY-de-lus) Cellars is a small, family-owned winery in Oregon's Willamette Valley.

Our winemaker, Aron carefully selects the very best barrels of Pinot Noir in our cellar to make our 2006 Labyrinth. Complex fruit and elegant structure, plum, cherry and violet with light, aromatic wood notes. The wine drinks well upon release and will improve with cellaring for at least three to five years.

Daedalus (DAY-de-lus) Cellars is a small, family-owned winery in Oregon's Willamette Valley.

Our winemaker, Aron carefully selects the very best barrels of Pinot Noir in our cellar to make our 2006 Labyrinth. Complex fruit and elegant structure, plum, cherry and violet with light, aromatic wood notes. The wine drinks well upon release and will improve with cellaring for at least three to five years.

Daedalus (DAY-de-lus) Cellars is a small, family-owned winery in Oregon's Willamette Valley.

Our winemaker, Aron carefully selects the very best barrels of Pinot Noir in our cellar to make our 2006 Labyrinth. Complex fruit and elegant structure, plum, cherry and violet with light, aromatic wood notes. The wine drinks well upon release and will improve with cellaring for at least three to five years.