

Daedalus (DAY-de-lus) Cellars is a small, family-owned winery in Oregon's Willamette Valley.

Our 2007 Riesling is from 37-year-old vines grown on Maresh Vineyard in the Dundee Hills of the Willamette Valley. Dry in style, intensely perfumed and vibrant, it pairs particularly well with seafood and light cream or citrus sauces.

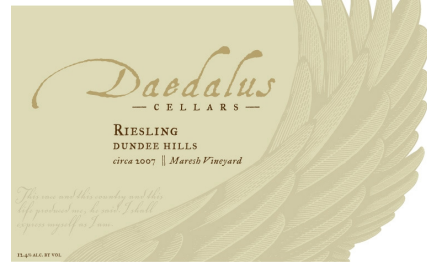

Daedalus (DAY-de-lus) Cellars is a small, family-owned winery in Oregon's Willamette Valley.

Our 2007 Riesling is from 37-year-old vines grown on Maresh Vineyard in the Dundee Hills of the Willamette Valley. Dry in style, intensely perfumed and vibrant, it pairs particularly well with seafood and light cream or citrus sauces.

Daedalus (DAY-de-lus) Cellars is a small, family-owned winery in Oregon's Willamette Valley.

Our 2007 Riesling is from 37-year-old vines grown on Maresh Vineyard in the Dundee Hills of the Willamette Valley. Dry in style, intensely perfumed and vibrant, it pairs particularly well with seafood and light cream or citrus sauces.

Daedalus (DAY-de-lus) Cellars is a small, family-owned winery in Oregon's Willamette Valley.

Our 2007 Riesling is from 37-year-old vines grown on Maresh Vineyard in the Dundee Hills of the Willamette Valley. Dry in style, intensely perfumed and vibrant, it pairs particularly well with seafood and light cream or citrus sauces.