

Daedalus (DAY-de-lus) Cellars is a small, family-owned winery in Oregon's Willamette Valley.

Our 2006 Syrah is nuanced and expressive with flavors of boysenberry, cherry, smoked meat and thyme. It has a powerful attack, sweet plump fruit, excellent structure and extroverted character.

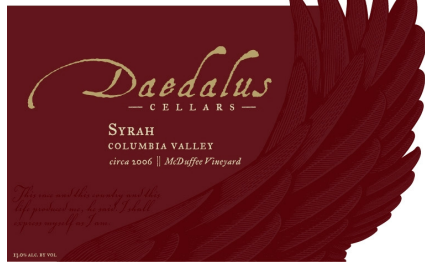

Drinks well upon release, with decanting, and will continue to develop over the next seven to ten years.

Daedalus (DAY-de-lus) Cellars is a small, family-owned winery in Oregon's Willamette Valley.

Our 2006 Syrah is nuanced and expressive with flavors of boysenberry, cherry, smoked meat and thyme. It has a powerful attack, sweet plump fruit, excellent structure and extroverted character.

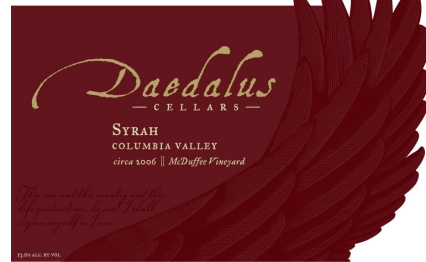

Drinks well upon release, with decanting, and will continue to develop over the next seven to ten years.

Daedalus (DAY-de-lus) Cellars is a small, family-owned winery in Oregon's Willamette Valley.

Our 2006 Syrah is nuanced and expressive with flavors of boysenberry, cherry, smoked meat and thyme. It has a powerful attack, sweet plump fruit, excellent structure and extroverted character.

Drinks well upon release, with decanting, and will continue to develop over the next seven to ten years.

Daedalus (DAY-de-lus) Cellars is a small, family-owned winery in Oregon's Willamette Valley.

Our 2006 Syrah is nuanced and expressive with flavors of boysenberry, cherry, smoked meat and thyme. It has a powerful attack, sweet plump fruit, excellent structure and extroverted character.

Drinks well upon release, with decanting, and will continue to develop over the next seven to ten years.