

Daedalus (day-de-lus) Cellars is a small, family-owned winery committed to producing small lots of distinctive, hand-crafted wines from some of the best Oregon vineyards. This is an Austrian white wine varietal that is just starting to gather some interest among Oregon winemakers. It has the body of a Chardonnay with the crisp acidity of a Pinot Gris and is an extremely versatile food wine.