

Daedalus (day-duh-lus) Cellars is a small, family-owned winery committed to producing small lots of distinctive, hand-crafted wines from some of the best Oregon vineyards. While our focus is on blended Pinot Noirs, each year we produce a tiny amount of a single vineyard Pinot. In 2004 it was Seven Springs Vineyard. This is a blend of partial barrels which we felt best represented the unique character of the vineyard.